To the Hon. the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled.

THE undersigned beg leave to represent that a Boom from Ayer's Island, at Stillwater, to through a portion of Ayer's Falls to the eastern shore would greatly accommodate and advantage the Mills and those interested in the manufacture of lumber at that place, and in case of injury to the Boom above or the escape of logs or other lumber, would afford to the owners and others great facilities in the preservation of their property and save to the community a large amount of property which now annually passes down said river into tide waters or below the mills where they can be safely and advantageously manufactured.

BANGOR,

MONDAY, JANUARY 8, 1838.

CANADA.

The news from the frontier, which we published on Saturday, is confirmed.

The account of the attack upon the Steamboat Caroline, her destruction, and the loss of lives on board is true. The number of persons missing is nine.

It appears that the Caroline was employed as a ferry boat between Navy Island and Schlosser, a landing place on the New York side of Niagara river, a little below the Island, and was intended for the service of the adventurers on the Island, who were preparing to invade Canada. The object of the Canadians was undoubtedly to destroy the means of communication between the Island and the American shore, in the hope of cutting off further succor to the insurgents. This certainly does not justify them. The boat was at the time of her capture lying at one of our wharves, under our protection—and her destruction was a gross wrong and insult to our Government. The attack itself was cowardly and assassin-like; and the killing of unarmed citizens who were sleeping on board her, was foul murder. But although the act cannot be justified, every candid man must admit, that it was not unprovoked. It appears that the attack was unauthorized by Col. McNabb, the commander of the Canada militia at Chipewa.

The excitement along the frontier among our citizens is represented to be unparalleled. The militia has been called out and a military cordon established, as well to prevent a breach of neutrality on the part of our citizens as to guard against future attacks from the Canadians. This is as it should be. Had our Government established a military cordon to prevent the passage of armed citizens to Navy Island, when first notified of the rendezvous there, as it was bound to do, in order to preserve a strict neutrality, and to prevent its citizens from compromising themselves, by mingling in a dangerous and criminal enterprise against a foreign government, the destruction of the Caroline and the murder of her passengers and crew, would not have happened. Had our Government performed its duty towards Great Britain, the band of adventurers on Navy Island, "the cankers of a calm world and long peace" would never have been formed, armed and disciplined; and the province of Upper Canada and the State of New York might both at this time be in the enjoyment of peace and quiet throughout their borders. It is to the culpable remissness of the Administration of Mr. Van Buren, "treading in the footsteps of his illustrious predecessor," that this melancholy event should be attributed. It is at the hands of Government, that the people should demand atonement for the blood of murdered citizens. It is against the administration that the indignation of the country should be directed, not against a petty band of exasperated provincials.

This sad affair, we trust will arouse the Government, as it has already aroused the inhabitants of the border, to a sense of duty. It will show to Mr. Van Buren, that it is not safe for him to copy Gen. Jackson, in every respect—that Canada is not Texas that Great Britain is not Mexico that the United States Government will not be permitted to neglect all the duties of a neutral, and to encourage its citizens in attacking a neighboring power by faint rebuke, with impunity. Great Britain will demand and enforce a strict observance of national faith. And if war should grow out of the collisions on our border, the people of this country will hold their rulers to a strict accountability.

A correspondence has been held between Mr District Attorney Rogers and Col. McNabb, in relation to the alleged landing of British forces in Grand Island for the purpose of attacking Navy Island. It will be seen by the letter of the Col which we publish below, that this violation of our territory is denied.

HEAD QUARTERS,
CHIPPEWA, 29th Dec. 1837.

Sir I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, of this morning, just handed to me by Judge McLean.

With respect to the report in the city of Buffalo that certain forces under my command, had landed upon Grand Island, an Island within the territory of the United States, I can assure you that it is entirely without foundation, and that so far from my having any intentions of the kind, such a proceeding would be in direct opposition to the wishes and intentions of her Brittanic Majesty's Government, in this colony whose servant I have the honor to be.

Entering at once into the feelings which induced you to address me on the subject, I beg leave to call your attention to the following facts. That so far from occupying or intending to occupy that or any portion of the American territory, aggressions of a serious and hostile character have been made upon the forces under my command from that Island. Two affidavits have come, stating that a valley of muskets by armed persons, some of whom were without the slightest provocation

I have the honor to be, sir,
With the highest consideration,
Your obedt humble servt,

The latest news from Augusta is contained in the following letter to the Editor of the Whig.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 7th, 1838.

DEAR SIR: The Committee have gone through with the returns, and will make their report on Monday declaring Mr. Kent elected. His majority is about 280 over all. What the Tory Senators will do, it is impossible to say though I cannot believe that they will throw any obstacle in the way of such a result. The Committee took the most fair and liberal course in regard to the returns and scarcely a vote was rejected. One or two of the Tories on the Committee, among whom was Hamlin, voted to throw out the votes of Hallowell because the figure '7' was omitted on the inside. The return was perfect inside and outside except in this one particular. Yet the Tories would disfranchise 769 voters on this frivolous pretence The Committee looked into the evidence where any allegation of fraud was made in the remonstrances sent in. There is nothing at all in them. They are got up by a distinguished office-holder in this county, who has several hundred dollars bet on the election and he employs one of the County Commissioners of this county to do the work. If the tories undertake to stifle the voice of the people there will be trouble.

Yours, &c. H.

MAINE LEGISLATURE.

IN SENATE.

FRIDAY, Jan 5.

The Secretary of State laid on the table the votes taken at the last September election in relation to the alteration of the constitution relative to bail.

Order from the House appointing a committee to procure some person to watch the public buildings in the night-time, was, on motion of Mr. Lake, laid on the table.

Mr. Woodman of York presented a remonstrance from the citizens of the town of Leeds, against the admission of the votes of that town for Governor.

Mr. Dumont said he would respectfully inquire of the gentleman from York, when and by whom the remonstrance from Leeds was handed to him for presentation.

Mr. Woodman replied that he received it in this town, from Mr. Howard of Leeds.

Mr. Dumont said he had asked the question because it had been said, on good authority, that the High Sheriff of this county sent one of his deputies recently to the town of Leeds, to bring in the Town Clerk, to testify as to the legality of the votes of that town, and that the deputy pressed upon the consideration of the said Town Clerk that he had a warrant from the Legislature to compel his appearance.

The remonstrance was then read and referred to the committee appointed to count the votes for Governor.

[The alleged charge is that the votes were not properly sealed by the Town Clerk.]

Adj. to half past ten to-morrow morning.

Mr. Dunlap, from the committee appointed to engage a suitable person for Assistant Clerk, reported that the committee had employed Wm D. Little of Portland, at a compensation of $2 per day. Accepted.

The following gentlemen were announced by the Chair as Monitors of the House. 1st Division, Mr. Cook of Waterboro'; 2d, Mr. Hancock of Otisfield; 3d, Mr. Gardiner of Lisbon; 4th, Mr. Pillsbury, 5th, Mr. Ingalls of Mercer; 6th, Mr. Wilson of Harrington.

Mr. Harris presented sundry depositions relating to the contested election between P. T. Harris and Gowen Wilson; referred to the Committee on Elections.

Mr. Paine of Hallowell presented a remonstrance from B. Hussey and others against the right of N. Hanscomb to hold a seat in this House; referred to the Committee on Elections.

On motion of Mr. Lyman, a committee, consisting of Messrs. Lyman, Sheldon, and Webster of Orono, was appointed to employ a suitable person as Messenger of the House.

A communication was read by the Speaker, from Wm. Getchell, of Pittsfield, respectfully informing the House that he herewith returned his credentials, and resigned his seat as a member of the House from the district composed of Pittsfield, Palmyra, Hartland, and Chandlerville; and that his conduct might not appear inconsistent, he would briefly state his reasons for so doing. 1st. He was a minister of the gospel, and in that capacity had duties to attend to, which he considered of more importance than any he could discharge here; 3d, he was elected without his consent, and against his avowed wishes; and 4th, his mind was devoted to such subjects as would render him incapable of doing justice to his constituents.

On motion of Mr. Parris, Ordered, That the Clerk be directed to notify forthwith the Selectmen of the different towns composing the district, viz. Pittsfield, Palmyra, Hartland, and Chandlerville, in the County of Somerset, that the seat of Wm. Getchell, representative elect from that district, was vacated by resignation for the purpose of having such vacancy filled by a new election.

Adj. to 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

LITTELL'S MUSEUM of Foreign Literature, Science and Art, we are glad to know has not ceased entirely. The publisher has issued the numbers for the past months in a body, apologizing for his remissness, and promising punctuality for the future. If one wishes to have all that is worth having of the British Periodicals for a fiftieth part of what the whole would cost, we advise him forthwith to go to Smith & Fenno's and take the Museum.

An Item of Newspaper Statistics for the Mudfog Association.—The Boston Transcript says "We have printed from that time (1832) to the present, on an average (although our circulation is now vastly increased) 23 tokens per day. The time is five years, two months and a half consequently it has "run off" 65,882 tokens, which required 17,941 Reams of paper, which is equal to 8,611,680 single newspapers!!"

THE LAST CASE. Our facetious friend of the Star always puts a finish to matters. Here is his last:

"One of the latest instances of absence of mind, is that of a man who, on turning down the bed-cloth at night to creep in, placed his candle in the bed and blew himself out."

An Ohio paper thinks that the editor of the Lancaster Eagle, a fellow weighing 300 pounds avoirdupois, ought to be "tried by a court of justice." He had better be "tried" by a tallow-chandler [Pretrim.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2d.

In the Senate Buchanan presented a petition from five hundred workmen in the Philadelphia Navy Yard, representing that they had been discharged from employment by the Secretary of the Treasury's order, and praying that they may be re-employed!!

The Vice President presented a memorial from the Legislature of the Territory of Wisconsin; praying for the immediate adoption of measures by Congress, to establish the line of boundary between that Territory and Missouri The Memorial was ordered to be printed and referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

In the House, Holsey of Georgia presented a resolution upon the subject of the Cherokee Treaty, which elicited discussion, which is thus reported by the correspondent of the Boston Atlas—

Wise said that he would be content with a jury of twelve men, even of twelve honest Georgians, to establish the fact that the treaty was forced upon the Cherokees; was fraudulent; and was not binding. He said that these Cherokees were civilized men. John Ross, a Cherokee from Georgia, would compare, in point of civilization, talent, and every accomplishment of a statesman, with our own Secretary of State from Georgia, and not suffer in the comparison.

Glascock of Georgia, said that Georgia had taken her stand upon the subject of the Cherokees, and meant to carry through her system, whatever might be the opinions of other people. If the General Government would not enforce the treaty Georgia would do so. However, he had no doubt the administration would carry the treaty into full execution. Glascock agreed that Ross was a man of education and talent, and the tribe had made great advance in civilization. But Georgia had determined that they should remove; and they must remove. The treaty had been ratified Congress had voted money to carry it into effect. Georgia demanded its execution.

Dawson made a most remarkable speech, in which he observed that he was proud to say, that the Cherokees far surpassed all the other Indian tribes in civilization. But what was the reason? The reason was, the extraordinary humility and mildness of the Georgians, who had permitted missions and schools to be established among them! Did Dawson ever hear of the two missionaries sent to the Georgia Penitentiary? Did he ever read the series of savage enactments passed by the Georgia Legislature by which the Cherokees have been stript of their lands, and submitted to the most infamous abuses?

Everett of Vermont, denied that in point of fact there was any treaty existing with the Cherokees. Both sides of that treaty were made by the United States. It binds them perhaps, but it does not bind the Cherokees. As to them it is null and void. He never would do any thing towards carrying it into effect. That treaty was an instance of infamous tyranny and oppression, which had no parallel. Everett moved to amend the resolution so as to call upon the president for all the papers and documents relating to that treaty. Everett spoke with great force.

Holsey is replying; but he evades the point as to the fraud and force of the treaty.

January 3d and 4th.

The Senate was crowed to overflowing, in anticipation of the debate upon Mr Calhoun's resolutions, this being the day assigned for their consideration. Several petitions and memorials were presented, among which was one presented by Mr Webster, from a daughter of one of the seven men killed at the battle of Lexington on the 19th of April, 1775, praying for a bounty. Several private bills were read and ordered to be engrossed, one of which was the subject of considerable discussion, being a bill for the abolition of public executions in capital cases.

Mr. Calhoun's resolutions then came up, as the special order, and the debate commenced The debate was continued to the 4th, and was conducted by Calhoun, Webster, Preston, Morris, Allen, Buchanan and Bayard. But two resolutions were adopted during the whole discussion, being the two following the first by a vote of 32 to 13, the second by a vote of 31 to 9

Resolved, That in the adoption of the Federal Constitution, the States adopting the same, acted, severally, as free, independent and sovereign States; and that each, for itself, by its own voluntary assent, entered the Union with the view to its increased security against all dangers, domestic as well as foreign, and the more perfect and secure enjoyment of its advantages, natural, political and social.

Resolved, That in delegating a portion of their powers to be exercised by the Federal Government, the States retained, severally, the exclusive and sole right over their own domestic institutions and police; and are alone responsible for them, and that any intermeddling of any one or more States, or a combination of their citizens, with the domestic institutions and police of the others, on any ground, or under any pretext whatever, political, moral or religious, with a view to their alteration or subverson, is an assumption of superiority not warranted by the Constitution; insulting to the States interfered with; tending to endanger their domestic peace and tranquility; subversive of the objects for which the Constitution was formed; and by necessary consequence, tending to weaken and destroy the Union itself.

In the House, Mr. Bell of Tennessee, introduced a Resolution, which occupied the House for the morning hour and some time after. The Resolution authorized the Committee on Contested Elections to discriminate between the evidence before the Committee at the special sessions, and the evidence no[illegible] before them, as to the claims of Messrs. Prentiss and Ward of Mississippi. The resolution elicited a brief debate, participated in by M[illegible] Bell, Wise, Cilley and Patton, of Va.

The Resolution, on motion of one of the New York delegation, was laid on the table, ayes 96 noes 92.

Reports were in order from the Standing Committee, but before any reports were presented, the rules were [illegible] and [illegible] motions made the order of the day.

The Glorious Eighth. The only act in honor of this day which but a short while since was consecrated by "the party" throughout the country as a day of jubilee [illegible] our notice, is the raising of John Sargent's flag.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

The packet ship Sheridan arrived at New York the 4th inst. with files of London and Liverpool papers to the 15th and 16th ult. to the N. Y. Express. From that paper we take the following:

In England, the only topic that engaged the Press, was the meeting of Parliament. That body met on the 15th. The House of Lords was but thinly attended. The House of Commons was full. The Hon. Mr. Abercrombie was chosen Speaker, without opposition. Her Majesty was to deliver her speech the next day, in person. The Money Market had undergone no change.

From France we can find nothing of importance. Spain is without interest. No new movement of the armies had taken place. Don Carlos had officialy announced his return to Navarre. All was quiet on the Continent.

The packet ship Susquehannah, from Philadelphia, for which so many fears were entertained, arrived at Liverpool in safety, having met with no unwelcome visitor.

We have never known a period within twenty years, that the news from Europe was so dull & uninteresting as it has been for the last two or three months, and from all appearances is like to continue for some time to come. The whole Continent, with England, (Spain excepted) have settled down into a profound state of peace,—and were it not that Her Majesty, the Queen of England, occasionally makes a visit or a speech, we should hardly find an article worth extracting. The news of our own country, particularly from Washington and the Canada frontier, has superseded that from Europe.

From the Niagara Frontier The Western mails last evening, brought us further advices from the Niagara frontier to Monday morning. There had been no incident of importance since the destruction of the Caroline steamboat, on Saturday morning. The people were in a state of considerable excitement, and the militia had assembled in considerable numbers, at Buffalo and other places. Two of the missing persons, who had been on board the Caroline, were carried prisoners to Chippewa. One of them was a Canadian, from Grand River, and the other was a boy from Buffalo. Nine persons were still missing. [Buffalo Daily Adv.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE. The New York Legislature met at Albany on Tuesday and was organized in due form: The Lt. Governor is ex officio President of the Senate. In the House of Assembly the Hon. Luther Bradish, a sound Whig, was elected Speaker over Preston King, the Van Buren candidate. The vote was for Bradish 98 for King 27. The Message of Gov. Marcy, occupying five and a half columns of the Albany Journal was transmitted on the same day. [Boston Centinel.

C. J. INGERSOLL vs JOHN SERGEANT.

The Globe of Saturday night, speaking of C. J. Ingersoll's speech in the Convention, says, "Mr. Ingersoll took Mr. Sergeant up in his career, and in a brief, spirited, eloquent, impromptu, made Mr Sergeant feel the infinite difference between honest, patriotic enthusiasm speaking from the heart, and the labored, counted, over-studied harangues of a retained advocate."

It is true, as the Globe says, that "Mr. Ingersoll took Mr. Sergeant up;" but the editor forgot to add that "Mr. Sergeant put Mr. Ingersoll down. [Philadelphia paper.

KEY WEST WRECKERS. A correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, writing from Key West, states that in 1836 the salvage decreed to wreckers for aiding or saving vessels and cargoes wrecked, was $183,706. During the year 1837, the amount decreed was $98,020. The wrecking business is said to be completely overdone, affording, as it does, but a very small profit for the capital and labor employed in it.

PATRIOTISM vs. LAW. The enthusiasm of the Burlington people, in behalf of the oppressed Canadians, has returned, in one instance at least, "to plague the inventors" that is, if the Burlington Sentinel represents the matter correctly. It seems that a "gentleman" of Burlington had got more deeply into debt than he found convenient, and concluded to be off; whereupon, converting all his chattels into money, he hired a barouche and horses and put off for foreign parts. His creditors were quickly in pursuit; but the cunning fugitive had contrived to drop various hints on the road that he was Mr. Papineau, flying from British tyranny, and the consequence was that the creditors and constables were impeded at every step, deceived by false information, roundly abused on all hands, and in some places put in actual fear of their lives by the broomsticks and other weapons of the sympathizing female patriots. The upshot of the matter was that the runaway got clear off, and the sympathizing Burlingtonians sneaked back from their wild goose chase, wishing that they had not stirred up quite such a fever in behalf of the soi-disant Mr. Papineau. THE STANDARD SYSTEM FOR CUTTING GARMENTS, BASED STRICTLY ON MATHEMATICAL PRINCIPLES.

THE subscriber has invented and patented an apparatus which he calls the Standard Measure for the use of Tailors

With this instrument measures can be taken on the body in such a way as to apply on the cloth and draft garments upon Mathematical principles, that will fit the shape measured, be that shape what it may

The standard system, which is based on this principle is published by the inventor in Boston in a quarterly Periodical entitled "The Tailors' Guide and Quarterly Review of Fashions"

The inventor will be in this city in a few days, when the trade will have an opportunity of examining the work, wherein the principles of the system are fully explained and illustrated

The above patent apparatus can have no higher recommendation than the following. It was exhibited at the late fair held in Boston by the Massachusetts Charitable Mechanic Association, and the committee appointed by the managers of that board to examine and judge of its merits, and who were tailors say of it that it is a new invention, and that they think it will prove useful to the trade. A Diploma was awarded to the inventor.

COLLECTOR'S NOTICE.

TAXES MUST BE PAID

MANY of the good people of this City have had line upon line, and precept upon precept, by way of polite and pressing invitations, to pay their taxes The strong language of the Assessor's Warrants for the year 1837, as committed to me, will not allow of further parley or delay Every resident of the city, who has not yet paid his tax, is earnestly called upon to neglect no longer this necessary and important duty, as in such matters "delays are dangerous"

Non Residents should look out in order that the Collector does not make too great a profit in advertising and selling their lands for taxes of 1837 The only way to prevent this is, by calling immediately and paying the same

☞ The Collector will be at the City Hall from 9 to 10 A M and from 2 to 3 o'clock, P M

To the Hon the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled,

THE undersigned begs leave to represent that a Boom from Ayer's Island at Stillwater to extend up and across the main Penobscot River through a portion of Ayer's Falls to the eastern shore would greatly accommodate and advantage the Mills and those interested in the manufacture of Lumber at that place, and in case of injury to the boom above or the escape of logs or other lumber would afford to the owners and others great facilities in the preservation of their property and save to the community a large amount of property which now annually passes down said river into tide waters or below the mills where they can be safely and advantageously manufactured

Wherefore we pray your hon body to grant us an Act of Incorporation, with such immunities and restrictions as may seem just and as will subserve the interests aforesaid And as in duty bound will ever pray

NEW AND VALUABLE SCHOOL BOOK!

THE attention of School Committees, Teachers and Parents is invited to the examination of the "JUVENILE READER," a selection of easy Reading Lessons, by a Teacher, a new edition of which, revised and corrected, we have just published. It is believed that the book is one which has been very much wanted in our common schools, and indeed it was compiled at the request of many of our best Teachers. The compiler is a gentleman of known abilities, and long experience in his profession. The pieces in this book, are chiefly selected from popular works designed for youth, and it is believed, will have a healthy moral influence in those schools in which it is adopted. The book comes at a very low price and has been adopted in a great many Schools with decided approbation, and having been stereotyped, is free from the danger of having any alterations made in it, which is the greatest trouble with all school books.

Those connected with schools, or interested in any manner, are requested to call and examine it.

☞ DISEASES OF THE LUNGS.
Deservedly the most popular remedy ever known in America!

VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM. The following recommendation is from Dr. Jacob Myers:

Extract of a letter from Dr. Jacob Myers.

"The Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam has been sold in this country for two years, and the medicine has gained an uncommon celebrity, for it scarcely in one instance failed of having the desired effect. I am by no means in favor of the many nostrums, most of which are impositions upon a credulous public, but that which I know by experience to be effectual, I cannot help but give my approbation thereto. A counterfeit preparation has been offered here by a travelling agent of Comstock, N. Y., and there is also another article vended here that is strongly suspected to be spurious.

NEW MAGAZINE OF VARIETIES BENTLEY'S MISCELLANY,

EDITED BY BOZ. With illustrations by Cruikshank "Never has a periodical more earnestly fulfilled its promises than this Editor our magazine It undertook to be comical and it is comical almost to a fault The humor of Boz humor per se there is nothing like it, nothing so good in its way, and it would appear that the springs from which it is drawn are inexhaustible
[London Atlas

The extraordinary share of popularity this Comic Periodical is said to have experienced in England under the editorial management of Charles Dickens Esq has led the subscriber to believe that an American edition of a work of such high repute for wit and talent would in addition to the Reprints of Reviews and Magazines of a character already issued by him be acceptable he therefore respectfully takes leave to announce to the public his determination to commence an American series in imitation of the original of Bentley's Miscellany with the January number of the present year 1838 and which he may expect to have ready during the month of February

Many editors of journals of acknowledged talent have extracted copiously from the numbers of the Miscellany as they have appeared and the Pickwick Papers, emanating from the pen of the talented editor is now in course of profitable republication in this country The character of the Work therefore from these circumstances it may be presumed is so far favorably known as partially to have received the stamp of public approbation which encourages the proprietor to hope that in being the mere humble instrument of presenting the first complete reprint of BENTLEY'S MISCELLANY to the literati of the United States he has not misjudged the public taste, and if his inference in this respect be correct he may, with confidence look forward to the result.
WM LEWIS,
Broadway, corner of Pine Street

Conditions The Work will be issued monthly in numbers as quickly after the receipt of the original copy as practicable Price 50 cents per number or Five Dollars per annum payable in advance.

☞ It will be handsomely printed in a bold type on a paper of best ruble quality size demy 8vo, and stitched up in a cover of unique design and made in every respect to correspond with the London edition. Subscriptions received by
